

Boston Scientific Appoints Desiree Ralls-Morrison General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

MARLBOROUGH, Mass., Oct. 4, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Boston Scientific Corporation (NYSE: BSX) today announced the appointment of Desiree Ralls-Morrison as senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary. Ralls-Morrison will join Boston Scientific on November 30, 2017, as a member of the executive committee, with responsibility for providing legal counsel across the company's global businesses and functions, and overseeing the company's global compliance function.

Ralls-Morrison will succeed Timothy Pratt, executive vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary, who announced his intention to retire from the company in April 2017.

"Desiree is an accomplished leader in the healthcare industry with deep expertise in broad-ranging legal matters and enterprise business strategy," said Mike Mahoney, chairman and chief executive officer, Boston Scientific. "We look forward to her contributions to Boston Scientific and the company's continued growth."

Ralls-Morrison most recently held the role of senior vice president, general counsel, corporate secretary, and head of the global litigation, government affairs and public policy organizations at Boehringer Ingelheim USA. Previously, she was general counsel for the Johnson & Johnson consumer group, having progressed through roles of increasing responsibility including senior counsel, assistant general counsel, and vice president of law for the women's health, nutritionals and over the counter businesses.

Earlier in her career, Ralls-Morrison was a senior attorney and assistant counsel at Merck & Co, Inc., focusing largely on regulatory and product liability matters, and prior to that, she held litigation roles at the law firms of Kelley Drye & Warren LLP and Shipman & Goodmand LLP. She currently serves on the Danbury Hospital/New Milford Hospital Board of Directors and The Inner-City Foundation for Charity and Education. Desiree earned her juris doctor from Harvard Law School, and her bachelor of arts in economics and political science from Wesleyan University.
