

Boston Scientific Announces First Quarter Results

(April 19, 2005) -- Boston Scientific Corporation (NYSE: BSX) today announced financial results for its first quarter ended March 31, 2005.

Highlights:

- Net sales of $1.6 billion, an increase of 49 percent
- Worldwide coronary stent sales of $721 million, an increase of 154 percent
- Net income, excluding net special charges, of $431 million, an increase of 122 percent
- Earnings per share, excluding net special charges, of $0.51 per share, an increase of 122 percent

Net sales for the first quarter were $1.615 billion as compared to $1.082 billion for the first quarter of 2004, an increase of 49 percent. Excluding the favorable impact of $26 million of foreign currency fluctuations, net sales increased 47 percent. Worldwide coronary stent sales for the first quarter were $721 million as compared to $284 million for the first quarter of 2004, an increase of 154 percent. Worldwide sales of our TAXUS® paclitaxel-eluting coronary stent systems during the quarter were $686 million, an increase of 219 percent. U.S. sales of our TAXUS® Express<sup>2</sup>™ paclitaxel-eluting coronary stent system during the quarter were $494 million.

Net income for the quarter, excluding net special charges, increased 122 percent to $431 million, or $0.51 per share, as compared to $194 million, or $0.23 per share, in the first quarter of 2004. Reported net income for the quarter, including net special charges of $73 million, was $358 million, or $0.42 per share. The net special charges for the quarter consisted of purchased in-process research and development costs related to the acquisition of Advanced Stent Technologies.

"This was another record quarter, thanks in large part to the ongoing success of the TAXUS Express<sup>2</sup> paclitaxel-eluting coronary stent system," said Jim Tobin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Boston Scientific. "In the coming quarters, we expect our recent dramatic growth to return to more moderate levels, following a full year of TAXUS system sales in the U.S. I want to congratulate our entire team for achieving global leadership in the drug-eluting stent market. Maintaining this leadership will continue to be our number one priority."
